Charles Court Opera has been described as one of the leading chamber companies taking opera into previously inaccessible places, and as the leaders of the current reinvigoration of Gilbert and Sullivan in London. They have performed across the UK in venues ranging from pub theatres to concert halls, and have toured internationally to Spain, the USA, Ireland and France.

Come to Bradford-on-Avon to enjoy musical treasures and great fun brought all the way from Penzance by our very own pirates. They will be picking up landlubbers from Bath to join them in entertaining you. More Jack Sparrow than Long John Silver, they are a friendly bunch kept strictly in order by our new musical director, David Gostick.
