Stainer The Crucifixion

Vaughan Williams Five Mystical Songs
Leighton Crucifixus Pro Nobis

Conductor: Will Dawes

The straightforward emotional appeal of its solos and choruses, and the potential for audience participation in its hymns, has established Stainer's Crucifixion as one of the most loved of all English choral works. Supporting this centrepiece of the concert will be Vaughan Williams's popular Five Mystical Songs and Kenneth Leighton's fervent and heartfelt Crucifixus Pro Nobis with its haunting final hymn, 'Drop, drop, slow tears'.

'Was greatly impressed by this performance (of Handel's Messiah, 6 December 2014). The choir sang with such energy and enthusiasm. A truly gutsy performance for a memorable evening.' ADKC
